QUICK FIX Inform the banquet director right away, says Donnie Brown, Style Network's celebrity wedding planner and author of Donnie Brown Weddings: From the Couture to the Cake. Every venue has different rules, but most will be able to squeeze in a few extra guests. (Contracts usually contain a clause stipulating that they will have enough food for an additional 5 percent over the guaranteed head count.) Create space for extra seating by moving some guests and the cake table to the cocktail area or by shrinking the dance floor. If that doesn't work, see if a larger room is available.
