Style Network's Top-Rated Wedding Planner Donnie Brown Unveils Season Eight of Whose Wedding Is It Anyway?

Dallas, TX – October 13, 2008 – With the eighth season of the Style Network's Whose Wedding Is It Anyway? in action, wedding planner extraordinaire Donnie Brown continues to "lift the veil" on new glamorous designs, intense hustle and disastrous dramatic encounters in his pursuit to acquire the pieces necessary to complete a dream wedding.

"As always, I am thrilled to be a part of Whose Wedding is it Anyway? as this show never ceases to amaze me in how it continually evolves," exclaims Donnie. "This is in large part why the fans are so dedicated and our viewers continue to grow exponentially each season – and we see no end in sight."

The exuberant Brown creates the memorable ceremonies celebrated on two of the Style Network's top-rated reality programs:

Whose Wedding Is It Anyway?, the longest running and number one program on the network, focuses around the frantic life of a wedding planner, their staff and clients. Donnie and the other planners encounter intense stress, drama and humor from the developing stages to the execution of the final voila!

"Because season 8's filming schedule took place during the warm north Texas summer months, we will be seen traveling to other, less sweltering climates," says Brown. "Don't worry," he adds, "there will be lots more drama and wedding fuss to keep the audience entertained!"

This season will also feature an uncompromising Donnie Brown ceremony for a high profile Olympic gold medalist, still yet to be announced.

On the spin off program, Married Away, Donnie and his fellow planners tackle the planning of weddings in various exotic destinations and the inevitable issues that surface when families interact with new environments, cultures and each other.

Donnie is currently planning the "yet to be announced" upcoming weddings of a well known screen actress and two star athletes from the NFL and NBA. In addition, Donnie recently inked a publishing deal for his nuptial planning manual tentatively titled Lifting the Veil with the preeminent Stewart, Tabori and Chang, a division of Harry N. Abrams, set to hit store shelves in Fall of 2009.

Donnie Brown entered the national arena when he was recruited to plan the glitzy nuptials for Grammy Award winner Leann Rimes and Dean Sheremet. In addition, his expertise has been tapped for premiere corporate and entertainment events including work with Oscar and Golden Globe winner Emma Thompson, Emmy Nominated Designing Women's Dixie Carter and the Dallas Cowboys. Donnie is a favored guest on Meredith Corporation's Better TV and Martha Stewart's Sirius satellite programming. Donnie also owns and operates the premier Five Star Floral Design and Events and Donnie Brown Weddings and Special Events in Dallas, TX.
